ATTENTION PARENTS AND THE DEAF COMMUNITY: Channel 8 (here in Indianapolis) has asked for our help. Channel 8 has given decoders to two cable stations so that Channel 8 news can be shown with captions on cablevision. The news are open captioned so you do not have to have a decoder to get the captioning. American Cablevision is offering captioned news on channel 10 at noon, 5:30 p.m., and 11:00 p.m. Comcast is only offering captioned news at 11:00 p.m., daily on channel 36.

Channel 8 would like for parents and people in the Deaf community to notify the two cable stations of your appreciation for this service. Also, it would be nice if Comcast could be encouraged to start broadcasting the two earlier captioned newscasts so that children can watch it before their bedtime.

People learning English as a second language can benefit from this service. Also, people learning to read can benefit from reading the captions.

(Cont'd)

If you want to notify the stations of your support, you may write or call:
